Description :

PDF-9bc82 | My late teenage years were an emotional train wreck, and lucky for me, they're all fully documented. ? Graffiti is my debut poetry collection written between ages sixteen and nineteen. When I need to tell people what it's about, I say it's a personal account of adolescence and maturation - which it is - but mostly, it's about life and death and love and change, because that's all I could think a... Graffiti (and other poems)
