Description :

PDF-ef1f8 | "Ruefle can seem like a supernally well-read person who has grown bored with what smartness looks like, and has grown attracted to the other side. . . . She is not writing with a prescription, or at least not one for this earth. Nor is she celebrating the commonplace. She is concentrating on one thing at a time."—New York Times "The property that Ruefle deems private is the impalpable nature of ... My Private Property
